

Diploma in Industrial Relations

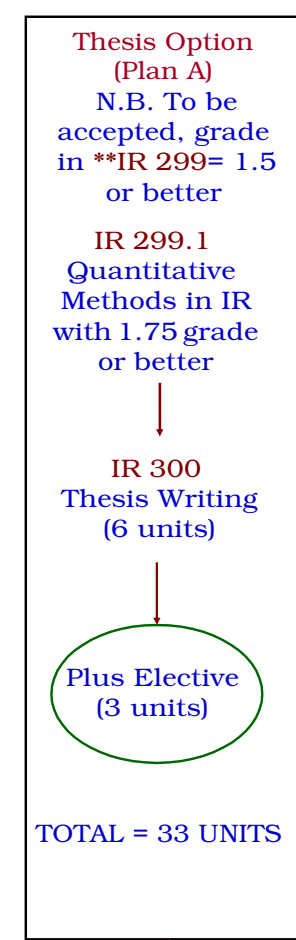

Master of Industrial Relations

DIPLOMA IN INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS (DipIR)

* May be repeated, provided the topics are different.
  Changed from 1.75 per "Guidelines for the MIR Thesis Option" dated March 5, 2005.

TWO (2) YEARS

Thesis Defense

AREAS OF SPECIALIZATION

Human Resource Development (HRD) IR 220 – HRD at the National Level IR 222 – HRD at the Firm Level IR 225 – Design and Administration of Training Programs IR 226* – Special Problems in HRD	Labor – Management Relations (LMR) IR 211 – Collective Bargaining and Industrial Democracy IR 215 – Forms and Settlement of Industrial Conflicts IR 216* – Special Problems in Labor Management Relations IR 281 – Seminar in Phil. Labor Relations Policy
Labor Policy and Administration (LPA) IR 214 – IR in the Public Sector IR 242 – Approaches to Labor Policy Analysis IR 246* – Special Problems in Labor Policy and Administration PA 241 – Public Policy and Program Admin.	Comparative Industrial Relations (CIR) IR 231 – Comparative Labor Movements IR 236* – Special Topics in Comparative IR IR 286 – Seminar on Workers' Participation in Management IR 287 – Seminar in Comparative IR

- ELECTIVES
- IR 205 – Wages and the Labor Market
 - IR 210 – Philippine Labor Movement
 - IR 212 – Job Eval./Wage and Salary Admin.
 - IR 213 – Organizational Behavior in IR
 - IR 217 – Employee Benefits Programs

MASTER OF INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS (MIR)

THREE (3) YEARS

Comprehensive Examination

